The Courchevel ski area is the largest ski area in the world connected on skis. It is a universal field with over 60 nationalities represented.

The city played host to the 1992 Albertville Olympic Winter Games.

The Olympic ice-rink « Forum » is every two years the theater of the International Grand Prix of Courchevel, part of the ISU Junior Grand Prix of Figure Skating. It is also used for galas and Figure Skating for Ice Hockey games.

The Municipality:

SAINT-BON-TARENTEISE

Is a village in the department of Savoie and Rhone-Alpes region. This village has 1981 people and an area of 54.98 km².

The municipality is located in the Vanoise massif and has established a set of valleys (including streams).

The Springboards:

THE PRAZ' SPRINGBOARDS

This is one of the ski jump sites the most important in France, it was built in 1990 to house two years later the events of the Olympic Winter Games 1992 held at Albertville. It annually hosts a stage of the Grand Prix Summer Ski Jumping.

The Ski Area:

THE FIELD OF THREE VALLEY

It is simply the largest ski area in the world with 600 kilometers of slopes...renowned for its accessibility for all levels (50% of easy trails), it is also essential for the "Great ski" with 111 red runs and 30 black...
